

Content Strategy & Pillar Framework

Turn Content Into Clients With Systematic Storytelling

THE CONTENT PHILOSOPHY

Core Principle: Every piece of content must do three things:

1. Identify the regular guy's pain
2. Inspire through vulnerable truth
3. Invite to make a brave choice

If content doesn't accomplish all three, it's just noise.

Always Include:

- Specific details (dates, numbers, feelings)
 - Vulnerability about failures
 - Clear next step for reader
 - Regular guy language (not fitness jargon)
 - Faith element (even if subtle)
 - Call to action that feels like an invitation

THE CONTENT MINDSET

2. Perfection kills progress - Post imperfect but honest
3. Stories sell, facts tell - Lead with narrative

4. Consistency beats quality - Show up daily
5. Engagement is relationship - Respond to everyone

Before Posting, Ask:

- Does this help a regular guy?
- Is there vulnerability here?
- What's the brave choice I'm inviting?
- Would past me need this?
- Is God honored in this?

Your content is ministry disguised as marketing. Every post is a chance to change a life.
