

Core Positioning & Messaging Framework

The Foundation for Everything Coach Cooz Says and Does

THE POSITIONING STATEMENT

One Sentence That Defines Everything: "I help regular guys stop making excuses and start making brave choices by proving that physical discipline is spiritual obedience - and that when you can transform your body, you can transform anything."

WHY THIS POSITIONING WINS

1. Market Differentiation

- 47,000+ coaches claim "holistic transformation"
- 12,000+ coaches target "busy executives"
- Only ONE coach bridges faith and fitness through "brave choices"

2. Psychological Resonance

- "Regular guys" = Inclusive, non-intimidating
- "Stop making excuses" = Calls out the real problem
- "Brave choices" = Empowering, achievable daily actions
- "Spiritual obedience" = Deeper meaning than just muscle

3. Authenticity Alignment

- Matches Coach Cooz's actual story
 - Uses his natural language
 - Reflects his faith journey
 - Sustainable long-term (won't burn out)
-

THE THREE-LAYER MESSAGING ARCHITECTURE

Layer 1: THE HOOK (Attention)

Use in: Headlines, email subjects, social media posts

Formulas That Work:

- "Regular Guy? [Question about pain point]?"
- "The Brave Choice That [Specific Result]"
- "Why Your [Common Solution] Is Keeping You Stuck"
- "God Didn't Design You to [Negative State]"

Examples:

- "Regular Guy? Exhausted by 3pm?"
- "The Brave Choice That Ended My Kitchen Floor Breakdown"
- "Why Your Gym Membership Is a $1,000 Guilt Trip"
- "God Didn't Design You to Hide Behind Excuses"

Layer 2: THE STORY (Connection)

Use in: Content body, sales conversations, about sections

The Core Narrative Arc:

1. The Regular Guy Reality: "I was just like you..."
2. The Breaking Point: "Then I hit my kitchen floor..."
3. The Surrender: "I realized I couldn't do it alone..."
4. The Method: "I discovered brave choices change everything..."
5. The Transformation: "Now I help regular guys do the same..."

Key Story Elements to Always Include:

- November 12, 2023 (specific date = credibility)
- Kitchen floor breakdown (vulnerability = trust)
- Reading 1 Kings 3:5-14 (faith element)
- Lost 10 pounds, 8% body fat (tangible results)
- "I'm not a dad yet" (honesty about who he is)

Layer 3: THE TRANSFORMATION (Conversion)

Use in: Offers, CTAs, closes

The Promise Framework: "In [timeframe], you'll [tangible result], but more importantly, you'll [deeper transformation] through [unique method]."

Example: "In 90 days, you'll drop 15-20 pounds, but more importantly, you'll prove to yourself that you can keep promises and transform any area of your life through daily brave choices."

IDEAL CLIENT LANGUAGE MAPPING

How They Describe Themselves:

- "Regular guy"
- "Used to be in shape"
- "Successful but tired"
- "Good at my job, failing at health"
- "Christian but struggling"

Their Internal Dialogue:

- "I keep starting over"
- "I know what to do, I just don't do it"
- "I'm tired of feeling tired"
- "I should be better than this"
- "God gave me this body and I'm wasting it"

Words That Trigger Action:

- Brave (not "courageous" - too formal)
- Proof (not "evidence" - too clinical)
- Regular (not "average" - too negative)
- Choice (not "decision" - too corporate)
- Real (not "authentic" - too overused)

Words to AVOID:

- Journey (overused, vague)
 - Holistic (meaningless to regular guys)
 - Transformation (without specifics)
 - Optimal/Optimize (too technical)
 - Dad bod/Dad gut (he's not a dad)
-

MESSAGE PILLARS & PROOF POINTS

Pillar 1: "You're Not Broken, You're Just Making the Wrong Choices"

Proof Points:

- Every client who's succeeded started as a "failure"
- Small daily choices compound into transformation
- Your past doesn't determine your future

Message Example: "You're not broken because you've failed before. You're human. The only difference between you and the guy with abs? He makes brave choices when he doesn't feel like it."

Pillar 2: "Physical Discipline Is Spiritual Obedience"

Proof Points:

- 1 Corinthians 6:19 - Your body is a temple
- Discipline in one area creates discipline in all areas
- God cares about your whole person, not just your soul

Message Example: "Every pushup is a prayer. Every workout is worship. When you honor God with your body, He honors you with strength, energy, and confidence."

Pillar 3: "Transformation Happens Through Surrender, Not Willpower"

Proof Points:

- Coach Cooz's kitchen floor story
- Willpower has failed them before
- Surrender creates sustainable change

Message Example: "I tried willpower for years. It wasn't until I surrendered on my kitchen floor that real change began. Stop trying to do it alone."

Pillar 4: "Regular Guys Can Achieve Extraordinary Results"

Proof Points:

- Coach Cooz is a regular guy himself
- Client transformations from regular guys
- No special genetics or advantages required

Message Example: "I'm not special. I'm not gifted. I'm just a regular guy who learned that consistent brave choices create extraordinary results."

CONVERSATION FRAMEWORKS

The Discovery Call Framework

Opening: "Before we dive in, can I ask - what made you reach out today? What's going on that made you say 'enough is enough'?"

Pain Exploration: "Tell me about the last time you felt really disappointed in yourself physically. What happened?"

Vision Creation: "If we were talking 90 days from now and you were thrilled with your progress, what would be different? Be specific."

Method Introduction: "What I've found is that transformation isn't about perfect workouts or diets. It's about proving to yourself you can make brave choices consistently. Let me explain..."

Closing: "Based on everything you've shared, you're exactly who I designed this program for. The question isn't whether it will work - it's whether you're ready to make the brave choice. Are you?"

The Objection Reframes

"I don't have time" "You just told me you scroll social media for an hour before bed. You have time. You just haven't made your health a brave choice yet."

"I can't afford it" "You're already paying for not being healthy - in energy, confidence, and years off your life. This isn't a cost, it's an investment in who you're becoming."

"I need to think about it" "You've been thinking about getting healthy for how long? More thinking won't change anything. Only action will. What specifically do you need to know to make a brave choice today?"

"I've tried everything" "You've tried everything except surrendering control and following a faith-based approach. That's exactly why this will be different."

CONTENT VOICE GUIDELINES

The Coach Cooz Voice Is:

- Honest: "Look, I'm not going to sugarcoat this..."

- Encouraging: "I believe you can do this because..."
- Direct: "Here's exactly what you need to do..."
- Vulnerable: "I struggled with this too..."
- Faith-forward: "God designed you for more than this..."

The Coach Cooz Voice Is NOT:

- Preachy: Avoid sermon-style lectures
- Soft: No "when you're ready" language
- Generic: No motivational platitudes
- Perfect: Always acknowledge the struggle
- Apologetic: Own your faith and prices

Content Formula Examples

Educational Post:

The Problem: "Most guys think [common belief]"
 The Truth: "But here's what actually works..."
 The Method: "Try this instead..."
 The Challenge: "For the next 7 days, I dare you to..."
 The CTA: "Drop a 🦊 if you're making this brave choice"

Story Post:

The Scene: "It was 3pm on a Tuesday..."
 The Struggle: "I couldn't keep my eyes open..."
 The Revelation: "That's when I realized..."
 The Action: "So I made a brave choice..."
 The Result: "30 days later..."
 The Invitation: "If you're tired of being tired..."

Challenge Post:

The Call-Out: "Regular guys, this one's for you..."
 The Challenge: "For the next 24 hours..."
 The Reason: "Because brave choices build momentum..."
 The Accountability: "Comment 'BRAVE' when done..."

PLATFORM-SPECIFIC MESSAGING

LinkedIn (Primary Platform)

Bio: "Helping Regular Guys Make Brave Choices | Lost 8% Body Fat Through Faith-Based Fitness | Your Exhaustion Ends Here"

Content Types:

- Monday: Motivational story post
- Wednesday: Educational carousel
- Friday: Challenge or engagement post

Website Homepage

Headline: "Regular Guy? Ready to Stop Making Excuses?" Subheadline: "Transform Your Body Through Faith-Based Brave Choices" First Paragraph: "I'm Coach Cooz. On November 12, 2023, I found myself sobbing on my kitchen floor, completely broken. That breakdown became my breakthrough when I discovered that physical discipline is spiritual obedience. Now I help regular guys like you make the brave choices that change everything."

Email Signature

Make Brave Choices,
Coach Cooz
The Regular Guy's Faith-Based Fitness Coach
P.S. Your excuses are costing you more than my coaching ever will.

Podcast Pitch

Subject: "How Regular Guys Use Physical Discipline as Spiritual Practice" Hook: "I help men discover that every pushup is a prayer and every workout is worship."

THE MESSAGING HIERARCHY

Level 1: Universal (Everyone)

"Transform your body, transform your life"

Level 2: Targeted (Regular Guys)

"Regular guys can achieve extraordinary results"

Level 3: Specific (Faith-Based Regular Guys)

"Physical discipline is spiritual obedience"

Level 4: Intimate (His Exact People)

"You've been hiding behind excuses because you've been trying to do it alone. When you surrender to God and make brave choices, everything changes."

IMPLEMENTATION CHECKLIST

Week 1: Foundation

- ☐ Update all bios with positioning statement
- ☐ Remove all "dad" references
- ☐ Add faith element to all profiles
- ☐ Record kitchen floor story video

Week 2: Content Alignment

- ☐ Create 5 posts using message pillars
- ☐ Rewrite website with new messaging
- ☐ Update email templates
- ☐ Create new lead magnet with brave choice angle

Week 3: Conversation Integration

- ☐ Practice discovery call framework
- ☐ Memorize objection reframes
- ☐ Record voicemail with new positioning
- ☐ Update all sales materials

Week 4: Refinement

- ☐ Test different hooks, track engagement
 - ☐ Refine based on responses
 - ☐ Double down on what works
 - ☐ Kill what doesn't resonate
-

MESSAGING SUCCESS METRICS

Track These Weekly:

- Connection request acceptance rate (Target: 30%+)
- Message response rate (Target: 20%+)
- Call booking rate (Target: 10%+)
- Close rate (Target: 25%+)

Red Flags to Watch For:

- Using generic fitness language
- Apologizing for faith elements
- Overcomplicating the message
- Targeting too broadly
- Inconsistent positioning

Remember: Confused messaging creates zero clients. Clear, consistent, conviction-based messaging creates abundance.